

Securities

TD Securities is growing its Public Finance team and is seeking analysts, associates, and vice presidents. TD Securities' parent, the Toronto Dominion Bank Group, is one of the strongest banks in the world, and is also the parent of TD Bank, N.A. Ideal candidates will be self-driven; have a strong academic record; have the ability to multi-task and prioritize projects, and have at least one to five years of public finance experience (depending on the position). Candidates must be familiar with bond math and have experience with DBC, Excel, Bloomberg, and PowerPoint. Day-to-day responsibilities would include managing transactions; providing quantitative and administrative deal support; working with Compliance to assure regulatory mandates are fulfilled; interacting with the desk to provide market-based solutions to issuers and other bankers; and assisting in responses to RFPs and in the preparation of presentation materials. Applicants for the vice president position should also have significant transactional experience and be able to supervise junior bankers.

Requirements: Be a team player, be attentive to detail and well organized, and be able to work under pressure; have a Bachelor's degree; have had 1-5 years of Public Finance experience (depending on position); hold or acquire necessary licensing within 6 months; have strong quantitative skills; have proficiency with DBC, Excel, Bloomberg, and PowerPoint; and possess strong verbal and written communication abilities. Compensation will be commensurate with experience and skill levels.
